

4-PART VIRTUAL

Leadership and Influence Workshop

Meet the Presenter:

Chelonda R. Marshall

Employment Experience Manager, Navigators

Chelonda Marshall has 20+ years' experience in Sales Management and Learning and Development. She is certified as a Corporate Trainer in Leadership Learning and Development through DDI (Development Dimensions International).

Originally from Jacksonville, Arkansas, Chelonda has lived in Colorado Springs for 21 years. She has 2 daughters, Chelsea Cenora and Courtney Jean; and is the excited grandmother of 1, Leonna Cenora. Chelonda is heavily involved in the Southeast Colorado Springs community, serving as a board member for Mission Medical Center, a planning committee member of AAYLC (African American Youth League Conference) and a member of the El Pomar Foundation BAC Advisory Council.

In 2015, Chelonda started a non-profit, Chelsea's S.M.I.L.E Network, in honor of her daughter Chelsea who passed away in 2011 due to health complications after a stroke. The non-profit focuses on connecting single parent families to resources necessary during times of economic stress and helping single parents to pursue ambitions they may have given up on while parenting.

In 2019, she began consulting (3C Star Consulting) for businesses that have had to downsize their internal learning and development teams.

Today Chelonda is the Employment Experience Manager for Navigators. Her mission is to make sure staff have a rewarding and fulfilling career development journey.
